

Karun @ British F3 Chandhok completes perfect weekend

Silverstone, England

26/05/03

Indian Formula 3 star Karun Chandhok completed a clean sweep of his weekend today at the Silverstone Grand Prix weekend when he claimed victory in Round 10 of the championship. This followed his two Pole positions and win in Round 9 of the championship yesterday.

The 19 year old was really fired up for today's event after a totally dominant performance so far through the weekend. At the start he fought off an aggressive Ernesto Viso but by the time the cars came past the pits for the first time Chandhok had pulled out 3 or 4 car lengths over the Venezuelan driver.

Karun then struggled a little bit with a vibration from the front end of the car. He talks us through "I'm not quite sure what caused the problem, but it felt like an unbalanced wheel or something which caused me some concern because it meant that there was a serious vibration." As the race progressed Chandhok lost time as he battled with the Championship class cars, which allowed team-mate Steven Kane to close up in the closing stages. Later he said, "Steven didn't really get close enough to challenge for the lead. I knew that as long as I kept doing consistent laps I'd be ok. I drove a little bit cautiously today because of the vibration but it was enough."

Indeed it was, and the Madras born driver recorded his 4th race win of the season, completing his perfect set of 2 pole positions and 2 race victories for the weekend. Karun was happy with his weekend's work "Silverstone for me is like my adopted home race. I absolutely love this circuit and the whole team and I came here with great expectations. To leave with 2 poles and 2 wins is absolutely fantastic. I really needed this after Knockhill."

Chandhok who is supported primarily by JK Tyres in association with Kingfisher, Rolon, UCAL, Amaron and Parx has his next race on the 22nd of June giving him a well deserved break back in India and a chance to get some "good home food !!".

Results :

Round 9 -

1. Karun Chandhok (Ind)
2. Steven Kane (GB)
3. Christian England (GB)

Round 10 –

1. Karun Chandhok
2. Steven Kane
3. Ivor McCullough

Championship positions –

1. Steven Kane 151 points
2. Karun Chandhok 133 points
3. Ernesto Viso 107 points